

Florida Radiance Strawberry

Fragaria sp.

Named 'Florida Radiance' because of the attractive luster of its glossy bright to dark red fruit. Firm and juicy. Short day cultivar. Consistently produced high early-season yields, and has maintained good fruit size throughout the main production season. Good disease resistance. Ideal for mild winter areas. Patent #20363 from University of Florida.

Self Fertile.

Ripens: Early Season

Cold hardy to U.S.D.A.
Zone 6.
