

Utah Sweet Pomegranate

Punica granatum sp.

Very sweet, good looking, quality fruit. Pink skin and pulp. Seeds notably softer than those of Wonderful.

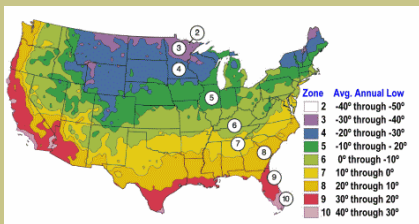

Non-staining.

Attractive pinkish-orange flowers.

Ripens: Mid to late October.

Mature height is 12-15 feet with a spread of 12-15 feet.

Cold hardy to U.S.D.A. Zone 9 and maybe 8b.

Since 1944

From the nurseries of

L.E. COOKE CO

Excellence in Bareroot