

Anthony Waterer Spiraea

Spiraea x bumalda 'Anthony Waterer'

Attractive bright carmine flowers in flat topped clusters occur from June until fall. This shrub's form is rounded. It has narrow oval leaves with a tinge of maroon. Good reddish-purple fall colors.

Mature height is 2-3 feet with a spread of 4-5 feet.

Cold hardy to
U.S.D.A. Zone 4.

Since 1944

From the nurseries of

L.E. COOKE CO

Excellence in Bareroot