

Staghorn Sumac

Rhus typhina

Large deciduous shrub or small tree. Upright. Branches are covered with velvety short brown hairs, like deer antlers, “in velvet”. Staghorn takes extreme heat and cold and can be grown in nearly any soil except alkaline soils. Leaves give tropical effect. Brilliant fall color. Brilliant fall color.

Mature height is 10-15 feet with a spread of 12-15 feet although in the wild often grows larger..

Cold hardy to U.S.D.A. Zone 3.

Since 1944

From the nurseries of

L.E. COOKE CO

Excellence in Bareroot