

Chandler Blueberry

Vaccinium corymbosum ×

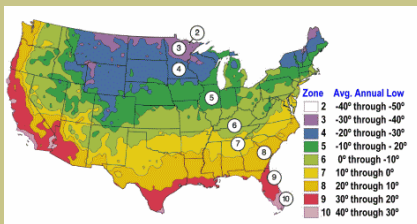

Bigger is better when it comes to this release. With fruit the size of cherries and surprisingly delicious flavor, Chandler is clearly the world's largest blueberry.

Another great feature is that it will provide you with a bounty of fresh picked fruit for over six weeks. The bush is vigorous with large dark green foliage and a slightly spreading habit.

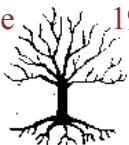

Ripens: Mid continuing into late season

Grows with a slightly spreading habit reaching to 5-6 feet in height.

Cold hardy to U.S.D.A. Zone 4.
