

Lavender Twist® Redbud

Cercis canadensis 'Covey'

A distinctly unique weeping form of Eastern Redbud. When staked up, can reach heights of 6-7 feet. If left untrained, often grows back over itself forming a large zigzagging mound. Lavender flowers in spring. Large, dark green leaves. Parent tree has survived to -23 degrees F.

Cold Hardy to
U.S.D.A. Zone 5.

(Patent # 10328)

Since 1944

From the nurseries of

L.E. COOKE CO

Excellence in Bareroot